process of reasoning be considered an aid to the farmer or a boost for business conditions present or prospective. The grain crop of the province has been therroughly wetted by an unseasonable and unwelcome fall. Grain that is uncut has been carried down by the weight of snow in a great many instances, and will be more difficult to hardy states of the state of the st

But there is no occasion to exaggerate the damage. The crop is not ruined in quality, nor wiped out of existence. The aggregate yield will not be greatly reduced, though the grade may be affected and the price thus depressed, while the expense of harvesting will be increased. That a percentage will thus be cut off the farmer's profits is certain. But the discount will not cat up the difference between the worth of the present ere; and the worth of an average crop. At most the storm has not done more than reduce the cash. storm has not done more than reduce the value of the margin by which the bump exceeds the normal one.

The period fixed for the seven Alberta coal to Ontario has expired. The freight ingly announced that the regular rate was again in force. But the same day of from Toronto that the Ontario Gove induced Sir Henry Thornton to contin to be imported by that province before the end of October. The experiment therefore has a further two months in which to run. that we would have gas in the city in October. We knew that we big undertaking before us, but with good organization, w considered that we could make good on it. Nothing has occurred since to make us change our opinions.

The big undertaking was the pipe-line between Viking and nonton. What is the exact position of that work today:

- -DISTANCE, EDMONTON TO VIKING: 79 MILES.
- -TRENCHING AND DIGGING COMPLETED: 79
- -ALL PIPE DELIVERED.
- -PIPE LAYING COMPLETED: 321/2 MILES
- PIPE-LAYING PER DAY: 21/2 MILES.
- PIPE-LAYING CREWS AT WORK: THREE
- -PIPE-LAYING BETWEEN VIKING AND GAS WELLS: ALL COMPLETED.

There are no big engineering difficulties to overcome, no big streams to cross, and with reasonable weather conditions we are confident of making our objective in good time. Everything has gone along without a skip so far.

In the city the distributing system is in good shape. On the South Side we expect to start operating the system on compressed air in a few days. That means that we will put in the high pressure lines compressed air at the same pressure as the high pressure gas will be carried later on; run this through the regulating stations, and reduce the pressure to the few ounces carried in the low pressure (service) lines.

This compressed air testing will last for several days and will put the system in perfect shape for the reception of the gas when turned into the mains. The same procedure will be followed on the north side. These tests on a large scale do not interfer in any way with the progress of the work, or the continuation of making extensions. The tests will reveal any imper-factions or leaks, so that they can be attended to before the gas is put in the system. Both sides of the river will get gas near the same time.

"From day to day in every way" we wish to keep you informed as to the progress of the pipe-laying on the big trench line—that is, the main link in the system. Every day at the top of our advertisement we will show you the progress made—the number of miles of pipe-line completed.

Phone into our offices for information as to services, applian mates, or anything you desire to know about natural gas fue.
